Local Circus in Business for 50 Years

(Additional circus pictures on back page)

The Carson & Barnes Circus now wintering in Hope's Fair Park is more than 50 years old and has been under the present ownership since 1942.

The top men of the circus are native to these parts. Owner Jack B. Moore lives at Marshall, Texas; Art Miller, general manager, has his home at Walnut Ridge; and Kelly Swim, assistant general manager, who has been with the circus since Mr. Moore's ownership in 1942, lives at Marshall.

Henry Marcell, ringmaster for the pony and horse acts, and himself a bareback and trick rider, hails from Woonsocket, R.I.; and the elephant-tender, Newman Noah, is a Cherokee Indian from Oklahoma.

Lots of Equipment
It takes a world of equipment as well as men and animals to handle a traveling circus. Carson & Barnes has 22 trucks and trailers. Seven of the outfits are now in Fair Park and the others will arrive shortly. The circus started its 1963 tour on April 22 at Atoka, Okla., then worked its way westward through Oklahoma and Colorado, Kansas, Wyoming and Montana.

From Montana it entered Canada for a 14-weeks stay, and back to North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas — and finally, a closing two-weeks tour in Arkansas, starting at Fort Smith and ending in Arkadelphia October 21.

The animal, aerial and acrobatic acts will begin training here for next season's tour about January 15, weather permitting. The public will be welcome to watch these rehearsals.

Baby Llama of the Carson & Barnes Circus Which Is Wintering in Hope's Fair Park

Vietnamese Revives Fight Against Reds

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese forces resumed U.S.-supported military operations against Communist guerrillas today after the Reds apparently failed to capitalize on confusion resulting from the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

U.S. military sources said the Communist Viet Cong appeared to have been caught off guard by the swift coup.

Except for some attacks on hamlets and outposts in the southern Mekong Delta, there was no noticeable increase in Viet Cong activity during the 18-hour battle Friday and Saturday in which Vietnamese insurgents closed in on Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, in the presidential palace in Saigon.

The Viet Cong command broad cast urgent appeals to its units over the countryside to begin all-out attacks, but the response was minor, the U.S. sources said.

While an atmosphere of gaiety continued in Saigon, the ruling military junta headed by Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh worked to form a Buddhist-led caretaker government.

However, the junta which engineered the coup was expected to retain the real power.

Slated to become premier was Nguyen Ngoc Tho, 55, a Buddhist who was Diem's figurehead vice president and who tried to mediate the Roman Catholic Diem's dispute with Buddhist opponents.

The bodies of Diem and his brothers is reported under guard awaiting secret burial.

The official story that they committed suicide after their arrest Saturday was widely doubted. More credence was given to reports they were killed by soldiers after leaving a small Catholic church in Saigon where they sought sanctuary following a letup in bombardment of the presidential palace.

Unofficial photographs of the bodies of the brothers showed Diem riddled by bullets, including evidence of a head wound, while Nhu had bruises indicating a beating. Informal sources said Nhu, Diem's close adviser, was stabbed to death.

Fall Piano Festival Held Here

The annual Fall Piano Festival sponsored by the Arkansas Music Teachers Association, Southwest District, was held in Hope Saturday at First Presbyterian Church.

No ratings were given, instead, constructive criticisms were written for each entrant by the Judge, Dr. Marceline Giroir, F.I.A.L. of Pine Bluff. A test on theory and harmony was given each performer.

Some 26 Junior and Senior High students from over the district participated. Those from Hope were, Gail Burke, Twila Hunt, Mary Beth Levins, Ann Mitchell, Charlotte Moore, Ellen Turner and Johnny Gardner.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission lifted its statewide ban on hunting, effective at 6 a.m. Tuesday.

The action means hunters will be able to take to the woods for the first time since Oct. 23, when the commission closed all hunting because of a forest fire threat resulting from a lengthy drought.

It also means that the first deer hunting period will open on schedule Nov. 11.

Vote Eyed for Resentment by Whites

By LARRY OSIUS
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of both political parties will keep close tabs on the scattered straws in the wind stirred up in Tuesday's elections.

Of major interest to Democrats: What, if any, is the extent of the so-called "backlash" of white resentment to Negro civil rights demands and activities in major Northern cities?

Republican leaders will be scanning the slim results to see what, if any, improvement the party has made in Dixie and the big cities.

At stake are the governorship, Kentucky and Mississippi; the mayor's office in such cities as Philadelphia, Boston, San Francisco, Memphis and Salt Lake City; hundreds of other municipal and state offices; and the state legislatures of New Jersey, Virginia, Kentucky and Mississippi.

Much of the attention will be focused on Philadelphia where Democratic Mayor James H. J. Tate seeks election to a full four-year term again at Republican attorney James T. McDermott.

The city has been the scene of violence and unrest this year stemming from efforts of Negroes to win better jobs, housing and schools.

Both candidates picture themselves as liberal on racial issues.

President Kennedy carried Philadelphia by a whopping 331,000 in 1960. Most Republican leaders believe it was his showing in the large Northern cities that cost them the White House that year. They have made determined efforts since to beef up big city Republican organization.

Another U.S. Convoy Halted by Russians

BERLIN (AP) — The Russians stopped another U.S. Army convoy today on the autobahn between West Berlin and West Germany, U.S. Army officials said.

The Americans said the convoy was stopped at Marienborn, the checkpoint on the western end of the superhighway.

The Russians once more demanded that the Americans get out of their vehicles and be counted. The same dispute resulted in delays of American convoys Oct. 10-12 and a British convoy Oct. 16.

The convoy today was returning to West Berlin from a training exercise in West Germany. An Army spokesman said 12 vehicles carrying 24 men were held up at the checkpoint just inside Communist East Germany. The Army said 20 of the 44 men were passengers.

"According to Allied procedures, communicated to Soviet military authorities on Oct. 29," the spokesman said, "this convoy does not contain sufficient passengers in the vehicles for them to dismount for purposes of verification."

Allied officers permit passengers in large convoys to dismount and be counted but refuse to do this with small convoys.

Turbines Are Exempt From State Tax

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that steam turbine generators used by Georgia-Pacific Corp. and International Paper Co. in their mills are exempt from the three per cent state use tax.

Revenue Commissioner Orville Cheney had filed a $30,925 claim against G-P and a $27,363 claim against International Paper, contending the machinery was not exempt.

Pulaski Chancery Court ruled the machines were exempt and today's Supreme Court opinion upheld the lower court.

The lower court was reversed, however, in holding that water softening material, sewer cleaner balls, certain conveyors, tow motors and recorder charts used by G-P were exempt from the tax.

Justice Sam Robinson disagreed on that point. He said he felt all the material should be exempt.

The Supreme Court said state law specifically exempts machinery which "converts raw material into a finished product which is taxed when it enters commerce."

The opinion said the turbine generators were so essential that no mill could be constructed without one and that the legislature clearly meant to exempt such equipment.

Gop Women to Hear Kansen

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Federation of Republican Women will hear Mrs. Harry E. Hagan, member of the Kansas City city council Wednesday at its semi-annual meeting.

State leaders to address the meeting include Republican Committee Chairman William L. Spicer, Arkansas National Committeeman Winthrop Rockefeller and National Committeewoman Mrs. W. L. Jameson Jr.

R. H. Dougan, 79, Dies Sunday

Robert Hendrix Dougan, aged 79, a lifelong resident of Emmet, died Sunday in a local hospital.

Survivors include three sons, Floyd of Emmet, Tom of Prescott and William Dougan of San Francisco; three daughters, Mrs. Homer Bennett of Prescott, Mrs. Shellie Formby of Bidar, Texas and Mrs. Chester May of Hope; three sisters; Mrs. Reulah Crabbe of California, Mrs. Etta Harden of Hope and Mrs. Laura Hathcoat of Gordon.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the 5th and Grady Street Church of Christ by O. T. Denman. Burial by Hendrix-Douglas will be in Snell Cemetery.

Vote Eyed for

Perhaps one-quarter of Philadelphia's 2 million residents are Negroes. In recent national and state elections the Democrats' estimated share of the Negro vote has ranged between 71 and 82 per cent.
Some analysts see a Tate victory by 20,000 to 60,000 votes. McDermott has said he'll win by 10,000.
The racial issue also hovers in the background of the Kentucky election. Republican Louie B. Nunn has been attacking an executive order issued by Democratic Gov. Bert Combs banning racial discrimination in businesses licensed by the state. The order has been held up by litigation.
Edward T. Breathitt Jr., the Democratic nominee, at first embraced the order. Now he says he would turn the matter over to the next legislature.
Other issues in Kentucky include Nunn's claim that industry has passed the state by because of high taxes and Breathitt's promise of 75,000 new jobs, expanded highways and parks, and improved farm income. Nunn also has repeatedly attacked the Kennedy administration. Neither Kennedy nor leading Republicans have campaigned in Kentucky.
Race appears to be the main issue in Mississippi.
In past years, the Democrats closed up their political shop after the party primary, because the winner rarely was challenged.
But this year Republican nominee Rubell Phillips has been waging a vigorous campaign and there are GOP officials in Washington who believe he has a good chance.
The campaign message of both Phillips and the Democratic nominee, Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson, has been simple: Each claims to be the strongest foe of integration in Mississippi and the Kennedy administration in Washington.
Also running—although state officials say his write-in votes won't be counted—is Aaron Henry, a Negro druggist.

Soybean Harvest to Set Record
WASHINGTON (AP)—World production of soybeans this year is at a record high of 1.1 billion bushels. This is 6 per cent more than in 1962 and 20 per cent above the 1955-59 average.
The Foreign Agricultural Service said virtually all countries with the exception of Canada raised more soybeans this year than last.
Production in the United States represented two-thirds of the world total. Red China, once the world's largest producer, raised about a fourth of the world crop.

DOROTHY DIX

SHE SAT THE CROSSROADS
By Helen Worden Erskine
Dear Helen: My mother died when I was 14, leaving me to care for my 12-year-old twin brothers and Dad. I kept house, cooked, washed and mothered all three of my "men." The boys are now in the Service and Dad died last week.
"Auntie," his spinster sister, wants to come live with me. She's 70. I'm 20. Dad left me and my brothers the house. I'm fond of Auntie but never having married and being past middle age, she's set in her ways. With what Dad left me, we could keep the family home as it was.
I love the old place and it's a temptation to let her come. All our relations are urging me to do that. When I think of this something inside me shudders for, in Auntie's eyes, I shall always be a little girl. I want to try out my wings. The relations, being the old-fashioned, Victorian kind, disapprove.
I was graduated from Junior College and feel qualified to teach domestic science, having learned from first-hand experience how to run a home and rear children. Only the other day I heard of such a position in another town. I long-distanced one of my brothers yesterday (he's at a nearby training camp) about this. He said, "Sell the house and grab the job." I do care for my relatives, especially Auntie, and hate to go against their judgment. What would you do?—Hesitating.
Dear Hesitating: Listen to that still, small voice which, from your letter, tells me you want to go. Risk offending the relatives. At 20 you are surely capable of looking out for yourself. With your experience, you would probably be an excellent teacher. From the standpoint of interest, variety, hours, vacations and salary (if you're lucky enough to get a job in an enlightened community which pays its teachers well), teaching is tops in my estimation. You can stop at any time, if you decide to marry and have children, and then go back to it later on when your children are

Happy Days Again in E. Lansing

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's happy time in East Lansing, Mich. these days with the town folks and Michigan State students joining in "California, Here We Come."
This pleasant situation for the Spartan rooters developed after vote of confidence as the Michigan State coach a week ago Friday, John Hannah, president of Michigan State, said the university board of trustees in an unprecedented move had pledged to keep Daugherty "for at least the next five years." There had been rumors Duffy was heading for Notre Dame.
The very next day unranked Michigan State knocked off ninth-ranked Northwestern 15-7. Last Saturday, State wallowed eighth-ranked Wisconsin 30-13. The Spartans now are tied with second-ranked Illinois and Ohio State, now No. 9, for the lead in the Big Ten Conference and very much in the running for the Rose Bowl.
Michigan State's climb back into the limelight was one of the features on college football's first November Saturday. The mighty Texas Longhorns, No. 1 in the Associated Press poll and one of the three remaining unbeaten and untied major teams, made it seven straight with a 17-12 victory over Southern Methodist.
The victory strengthened Texas' hopes of landing a spot in the Cotton Bowl. The Longhorns can virtually sew up the bid this week by beating Baylor, with its passing star Don Trull, in a vital Southwest Conference struggle. Baylor remained tied with Texas in the SWC by thumping Texas Christian 33-13.
Fifth-ranked Auburn and unranked Princeton, the other major teams with perfect slates, each won their sixth straight. Princeton, headed for the Ivy League title, whopped Brown 34-13 while Auburn tied with Mississippi for the lead in the Southeastern Conference, beat Florida 19-0. This week Princeton plays at Harvard and Auburn battles Mississippi State at Jackson, Miss.
Once-tied Illinois, No. 2 in the AP poll, remained unbeaten with a 41-21 romp against Purdue, Michigan State's opponent this week. Mississippi, No. 3, thumped Louisiana State 37-3 and Roger Staubach led No. 4 Navy to a 35-14 romp over Notre Dame.
The sixth-ranked Oklahoma against Colorado, but Alabama, No. 7, and Ohio State, No. 9, barely edged Mississippi State 20-19 and Iowa 7-3, respectively. The 10th-ranked Pitt Panthers rebounded from their Navy defeat with a second half comeback that humbled Syracuse 35-27.

This Saturday, in addition to the Baylor-Texas and Auburn-Miss. State games, Michigan is at Illinois, Tampa at Mississippi, Maryland at Navy, Iowa State at Oklahoma, Northwestern at Wisconsin, Penn State at Ohio State and Pitt at Notre Dame. Alabama has an open date, its game with Miami having been postponed to Dec. 7.
Southern California, which just missed making the Top Ten last week, took a 22-7 licking from Washington in an important big game on the Pacific Coast. The victory put the Huskie in the lead ahead of the Trojans, California, UCLA, Washington State and Stanford race to decide the Big Ten's opponent in the Rose Bowl.
Army came from behind to nip the Air Force 14-10 in their intersectional battle at Chicago. In other Saturday results Memphis State stayed on top of the independent standings by crushing Louisville 25-0, Georgia Tech whacked Duke 30-6, Negron 3A Conway last Friday braska nipped Missouri 13-12 Oregon State took Stanford 10-7 Bowling Green dropped out of the major unbeaten, untied class by losing to Miami of Ohio 21-12. Tulane ended a 17-game losing streak by beating South Carolina 20-7 and Penn, which once ranked with the best, came through with the Ivy League surprise of the year, by defeating Harvard 7-2.

Mexican Labor Bill Extended

WASHINGTON (AP)—A one-year extension of the Mexican farm labor program had approval of the House today but there were indications that this will be the last round for the 12-year-old program.
The measure was sent to the Senate by a 173-158 vote Thursday although member after member rose to say he was supporting the extension just to give large users of Mexican labor a chance to adjust to the end of the program.
The House voted down a bill to extend the program another two years last May 29.
And Thursday House members similarly rejected an amendment to the one-year extension that would have provided that in 1964 only those farms which have used such labor in the past would be eligible.

Arkansan Killed in Mississippi

BYHALIA, Miss. (AP)—Mrs. E. C. Dillard, 44, of Jacksonville, Ark., was killed and her husband was critically injured in a two-car collision near here Sunday night.
The couple's 12-year-old daughter, Susan, was injured but less seriously than her father. Their 7-year-old son escaped unhurt.

Mrs. Donald L. Oglesby

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday morning, November 2, at ten o'clock at the Williams home, Miss Martha Williams became the bride of Donald L. Oglesby. Reverend Jim Rainwater, pastor of the First Christian Church, Fayetteville, heard the vows.

The former Miss Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hersel Ealdon Williams, and her husband is the son of Mrs. O. L. Oglesby and the late Mr. Oglesby of Hope.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ralph Johns and the soloist, David Pearson from Hope, sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the ceremony.

A single basket of white mums and gladiolus graced each side of the wedding altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of peau de sole fashioned with bateau neckline and long pointed sleeves, high shaped waist with motifs of Alencon lace dotted with sequins, back of the flowing Victorian style skirt, scattered with motifs of lace and sequins and ending in a chapter train. A circlet of pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil of illusion in place.

The bride carried a bouquet of red carnations centered with a white orchid on top of a white Bible covered with lace. Tiny love knots were attached to the streamers of red and white ribbon flowing from the Bible.

Mrs. Tom Powers of McLean, Virginia was her sisters' matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a floor length red velvet gown and a red velvet pillbox hat with shoes dyed to match. She carried a snowball of red, white and peppermint carnations nestled in lace and net.

Richard McMurtrey, former roommate of the groom, served as best man.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Williams was attired in a copen blue wool sheath dress and taupe color accessories. Her corsage was red carpan-tions.

The mother of the Bridegroom, Mrs. Oglesby, chose a beige sheath dress accented with yellow and orange. Her corsage was of golden baby mums.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the den of the Williams home. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of red and white pom pom mums. Red candles graced each side of the centerpiece. The three tier wedding cake was decorated in red and white and a miniature bride and groom topped the cake.

Mrs. Milo Laster, Mrs. Gene Goins, and Mrs. S. D. Dean were reception hostesses. The guest book was attended by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Mark Larus.

Mrs. Ralph Johns, pianist, played the background music for the reception.

Following the reception, the couple left for a brief wedding trip. For going away, the bride chose a nassau blue velvet jumper worn over a smoke blue silk blouse. She wore the white orchid from the bridal bouquet as her corsage.

The newlyweds will reside in Fayetteville, where both are attending the University of Arkansas.

Miss America Roots for Razorbacks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Miss America momentarily forgot her crown and relived her days as a University of Arkansas student and Razorback fan Saturday night.

For a brief spell she was just Donna Axum, rooting for the Porks, who humded her a 21-7 victory over Texas A&M.

To the crowd of 41,000 though, she was their guest of honor.

They roared their welcome as Donna rode around the stadium in a white convertible. She was preceded by the four runners-up in the Miss America pageant.

Donna was presented a bouquet of red roses and then joined her court on special bleachers erected on the 25-yard line near the Arkansas Razorback bench.

Miss Axum, who was forced to drop out of the university because of her Miss America commitments, joined the crowd in singing the Arkansas alma mater.

About mid way through the song the tears welled in her eyes. But they vanished as the song built to a peak and by the time it was over, she was wearing a broad smile.

She sat down but quickly jumped back to her feet to cheer as the Razorbacks came on the football field.

At one time, during the game, with a hot dog in one hand and soft drink in the other and cheering loudly, she presented the all-American girl image, which she says should be the image of Miss America.

During the halftime ceremonies, the Razorback band performed in her honor and Miss Axum addressed the crowd.

A hush fell over the stadium as she told them that she was anxious to return to the University of Arkansas next fall and that she wanted to create a new image of Arkansas for people throughout the country.

The El Dorado, Ark. beauty will remain in Little Rock until Wednesday to make television commercials.

Cotton Crop Is Stored on Loans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers have stored about 15 per cent of this year's cotton crop under price support loans.

An Agriculture Department report shows that 2,226,000 bales had been placed under loans and thus withheld from the market through Oct. 25.

2,000 Attend Dedication

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — A crowd of 2,000 persons attended the dedication Sunday of the new $1 million Torreyson library at Arkansas State Teachers College in Conway.

Edmond Low, director of the Oklahoma State University library at Stillwater, said the new structure, which has a 290,000 book capacity, gave State Teachers the finest facility in the country for an institution of its size.

The library was named for Dr. B. W. Torreyson, second president of the school.

Living Cost Is Up 24 Per Cent in Decade - Medical Care Over 50 Per Cent Up

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

A British psychologist claims that happy people swear more than unhappy ones.

The over-all cost of living has increased by 25.3 per cent in the last decade — but medical care costs are up more than 50 per cent.

Housewives tend to get mad if told their life is getting easier, but it is estimated that by using an automatic washer and dryer the average woman saves each week the energy it would take to climb a ladder 6 1/2 miles high.

Over 90,000 tons of paper are used in turning out some five billion greeting cards each year. About half are sent at Christmas, and more than two million go astray because they have the wrong address.

You'd have to wear an eight-power telescope to see as well at a distance as falcons do. Those swift birds of prey are among the keenest-sighted of all earth's creatures.

At least 20 countries have borrowed the song "God Save the King" for their national anthems.

"Companionship is a matter of mutual weaknesses. We like that man or woman best who have the same faults that we have"—George Jean Nathan.

The next time your wife starts to bowl you out, tell her she may be ruining her own complexion. Tension is one cause of skin eruptions.

Only 36 per cent of the nations families expect to occupy their present homes for the rest of their lives. Nearly two-thirds expect to move.

Each soldier in the American Revolution, by decree of the Continental Congress, was supposed to receive a ration of a quart of beer a day—but he often didn't get it. George Washington had a brewhouse at his Mount Vernon home and his own recipe for making beer, although his personal preference was a small glass of Madeira wine.

Porkers Get Past Aggies, Rice Is Next

By WICK TEMPLE

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas' struggling young "Razorbacks, happy with a somewhat ragged 21-7 victory over Texas A&M Saturday night, looked down a tough November schedule today and wondered if they are good enough to beat Rice and SMU on the road on successive weekends.

They play Rice in Houston Saturday in one of the season's biggest tests. Rice is 2-1 in conference play and beat Texas Tech 17-3 Saturday with a multi-faceted offense.

The Owls still have visions of sharing the conference title with Texas — the only league team that has beaten them.

The Hogs, 4-3 for the season, will need breaks and errorless football to overcome both Rice and SMU.

They won't be able to afford a bad snap from center like the one that gave Texas A&M its only touchdown.

Randy Stewart's snap sailed over punter Bobby Nix's head and Nix pursued it 27 yards into the end zone and got out to the one.

Aggie quarterback Charles LaGrange scored from there.

But the Hogs had A&M outclassed. Quarterback Billy Gray scored on a one-yard sneak and threw touchdown passes of 13 and 11 yards to tailback Jack Brasuell.

The Hog's improving defense gave A&M no running room. The only Aggie offensive move was a 56-yard drive after the opening kickoff. It ended when Porker Tommy Moore intercepted a pass at the one.

Two of Arkansas' touchdowns featured big breaks. A fumble recovery by tackle Jim Williams at the A&M 27 set up the first one. And a 36-yard pass interference call to the Aggie 10 set up the second.

The 58-yard drive to the fourth quarter touchdown was just solid football.

Arkansas' sophomores continued to show promise of greatness. Brasuell gained 60 yards rushing and 60 yards on five punts catches. Fullback Jim Lindsey ran for 84 yards. Ken Hatfield, a junior, returned five punts for 75 yards including a flashy 42-yard return.

Coach Frank Broyles said he was pleased with Arkansas' performance, especially the defensive work.

A&M coach Hank Foldberg remarked of his team's 99 yards in penalties: "I'd like to say a lot about those penalties, but I'm not. I'm going to save my remarks for the conference commissioner and the other officials."

Foldberg credited Arkansas' punting — by Moore and Nix — with giving the Hogs field position that held A&M to seven first downs, including only two in the second half.

Bobcats Step Up a Notch in Standing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pine Bluff, Fort Smith and Texarkana still rank 1-2-3 in this week's Associated Press Arkansas high school football poll, but Little Rock Hall lost impressively last Friday night and climbed up a notch.

The Warriors, who went down 13-12 to Fort Smith moved from fifth to fourth, and Little Rock Central, which edged past Region 3AA Conway last Friday night, dropped a rung into fifth place.

The Zebras, leaders in the Big Ten Conference football race, got all first place votes; Fort Smith, second in the Big Ten, polled all second-place votes; and Texarkana, third in the Big Ten, pulled in all third-place ballots.

Hall got four votes for fourth, as did Central, but no one rated the Warriors below fifth, and the Tigers were rated sixth on one ballot—that made the difference.

Blytheville, also of the Big Ten conference, looked good to the AP board of sportswriters and broadcasters and moved from eighth to sixth.

Hope of Region 4AA broke the Class AAA grip on the poll by claiming seventh place, which was held last week by Region 3AA Benton.

Russellville of Region 3AA and North Little Rock of the Big Ten tied for eighth.

Benton got 10th place to round out the poll.

Results of the poll, with first place votes in parentheses and total points at right:

1. Pine Bluff (8)	80
2. Fort Smith	72
3. Texarkana	64
4. Little Rock Hall	52
5. Little Rock Central	51
6. Blytheville	31
7. Hope	18
8. (tie) Russellville	16
9. North Little Rock	16
10. Benton	12

Teachers Break A&M Win Streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Bears of Arkansas State Teachers College barged in front of the field Saturday night with a 27-20 triumph over Arkansas A&M in a showdown battle in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference football race.

Teachers has only to hurdle tough Henderson, which knocked off Arkansas Tech 10-7 Saturday night, to get to another AIC title.

Meanwhile, Ozarks downed Harding 14-7 for the first Mountaineer victory in AIC play since 1958, and Ouachita rambled past Southern State 20-7.

Teachers quarterback Bill Tiner threw four touchdown passes to send the Bears over A&M, breaking the Boll Weevils' nine-game winning streak.

Tiner passed 49 yards to Larry Walton in the first quarter, then hit Walton on 12 and 10 yard scoring passes in the third period. He also fired 14 yards to end Bill Shimek for six points.

Walton grabbed six passes for 11 yards and Shimek gobbed up four for 71 yards.

A&M quarterback Donnie Lindsey passed 20 yards to Carl Preston for the first score of the game, Bobby Kempson took an 18-yard pass for a third quarter touchdown, and Preston lunged three yards for the last Boll Weevil TD.

Troy Tyson booted a 27-yard field goal and Terry Don Thurman plowed 13 yards for a touchdown and Henderson's defense did the rest in downing Tech.

The Wonder Boys got on the scoreboard midway through the last quarter on a 65 yard drive. Quarterback Don Beebe passed 48 yards to Mike McGaugh to the Henderson 17. Four plays later, Beebe passed seven yards to Mike Smith for the touchdown.

Others receiving votes, in order: El Dorado, West Memphis, Fort Smith St. Anne's, Fayetteville, Magnolia.

Fishing Derby Winners Named

BULL SHOALS, Ark. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers of Lamar, Mo. took only 15 minutes to come from behind and win the Mr. and Mrs. World Championship in the freshwater World Series of Sport Fishing on Lake Bull Shoals.

They entered the final hour of the contest trailing defending champions, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Mangold of San Antonio, Tex. The Rogers had not caught a fish all day.

Then they hit a school of fish and in 15 minutes had landed three white bass and three black bass to finish with a total of 852 points.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wilhoite of West Plains, Mo., finished second with 628 points and the Mangolds wound up third with 533 points.

Ozarks, though outgained, hung on in tough spots and eked out the triumph over the Bisons.

Tailback Bill Collins galloped 36 times and gained 224 yards for the Mountaineers and scored both their touchdowns on runs of three years each in the first quarter.

In between, Harding went 80 yards in 20 plays and sent fullback Gail Mote crashing in from the two.

Ouachita's Bob McGlothlin rammed two and four yards for touchdowns and Frank Spair, a hour passed 11 yards to end Jack Mills for another Tiger tally in the victory over the Mule-riders.

Southern scored first on an 86-yard, 17-play drive. Fullback Jim Leonard got the touchdown on a one-yard plunge.

McKinley Adds to U.S. Lead

By HENRY BRADSHAW

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Wimbledon champion Chuck McKinley scored a 10-8, 6-8, 6-2, 1-6, 6-0 victory over India's Ramanathan Krishnan today to give the United States a 5-0 sweep in the interzone Davis Cup tennis finals.

In the other singles match, Martin Riessen of Evanston, Ill., subbing for Dennis Ralston, won over Premjit Lall 6-3, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1.

Ralston, who teamed with McKinley in clinching the series on Sunday, turned up with a blistered racket hand.

The final match had to be continued beyond the scheduled quitting time before McKinley could wear down Krishnan.

G&F Eases Duck Hunter's Fears

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Duck hunters fears about early-arriving ducks passing over Arkansas because of a lack of water have been softened by the state Game and Fish Commission.

Gus Albright, commission news editor, said Saturday that the state's prolonged drought will not cause ducks to by-pass the state because there are still enough privately developed reservoirs to attract them.

"This is the kind of fall that emphasizes the tremendous importance of these reservoirs to the sport of duck hunting," he said. "We don't lose the ducks. They simply concentrate in few-

Texas, Baylor Game Tops in Conference

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas, weary and jittery from three straight hair-raising games it won by a combined margin of 13 points, faces a scoring machine this week in its fight to remain No. 1 in the nation and repeat as Southwest Conference champion.

It's Baylor, with its Don Trull throwing the ball all over the lot and bringing touchdowns in a flood, that bars the way of the Longhorns this time.

The two unbeaten conference leaders clash at Austin Saturday with 65,530 screaming fans expected to jam the stadium.

It will not decide the championship since each team will have two conference games to play, but general opinion is that the winner will go on to the title and host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas beat Southern Methodist 17-12 Saturday to remain undefeated and untied through seven games. It followed four-point victories over Arkansas and Rice. And all of these points—the entire 13 that put the Longhorns over-have been produced by a stockinged-foot kicker — Tony Crosby.

Baylor beat Texas Christian 32-13 with Trull running for three touchdowns he set up with his passing and throwing for another. It was a giant hurdle for the Bears as they looked toward the showdown with Texas.

Rice trimmed Texas Tech 17-3 to remain in the championship race. The Owls are 2-1 and could share the title by finishing without defeat while Texas and Baylor lose one each.

Rice's foe Saturday will be Arkansas, eliminated from the championship running but trying to finish up with a good enough record to warrant a bowl bid. Arkansas lashed Texas A&M 21-7 last week.

Southern Methodist and Texas A&M play at College Station Saturday in a conference game that has no bearing on the title. Each is out of the race.

Texas Tech and Texas Christian return to the intersectional wars. Texas Tech plays Kansas State at Lubbock Saturday afternoon. Texas Christian meets Louisiana State at Baton Rouge Saturday night.

Big Dipper Tossing in the Baskets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"The Big Dipper" is finding the range again in the National Basketball Association.

Which means Wilt Chamberlain is tossing those baskets in as of yore for the San Francisco Warriors.

Big Wilt set all kinds of scoring records in the NBA two years ago with more than 4,000 points and an average of 50 points plus. He slipped into the 40-plus average last year and the first weekly scoring statistics this season had his average down to 25.5.

But Wilt showed he hasn't lost the old touch by flipping in 55 points Saturday night as the Warriors whipped the Los Angeles Lakers 118-99 and replaced the Lakers in second place in the Western Division. Wilt scored 23 baskets and converted nine of 15 free throws.

Most of the league's weekend activity occurred Saturday night. In the other games that night the unbeaten Boston Celtics won their sixth straight with a 117-109 decision over Detroit; the St. Louis Hawks, the Western Division leaders, won their fifth straight, 128-99 over Philadelphia and the New York Knicks defeated Baltimore 113-105.

Oscar Robertson, the Big O, led the Cincinnati Royals to a 95-93 victory over Philadelphia at Dayton, Ohio, in the only game scheduled Sunday.

Robertson hit three long jump shots after Jerry Lucas fouled out with three minutes left and the Royals ahead 86-83. With only six seconds left, Oscar made a free throw that sewed er places."

Eastern Arkansas has dozens of such reservoirs, Albright said, creating "a network of water areas large enough to accommodate the ducks that come our way."

The duck hunting season is Dec. 2-Jan. 5.

Oilers Player Has Fractured Jaw

Cross Country Win for State

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State wound up its cross country competition Saturday with a 20-36 victory over Mississippi College on State's 3.2 mile course. Don Hunt of Mississippi finished first in 19:13. State won the next five places.

State Loses in Final Few Seconds
JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) - A two-point conversion with 46 seconds to play sent Arkansas State down to a homecoming defeat, 34-33, at the hands of Murray State of Kentucky in a wild football game Saturday.
The loss put the Indians' record at 2-4, priming for a stern test against Delta State next Saturday.
Tony Fiorandanti, who had passed two and 15 yards for a pair of touchdowns, flipped the decisive conversion pass to Bobby Chapman.
But Murray had gone great guns twice on kickoff returns. Vic Kubu rambled 99 and 99 yards for touchdowns with State kickoffs to pull Murray out of holes.
Bob McCuiston scooped up a blocked punt and sprinted 13 yards for Arkansas State's first touchdown and halfback Tommy Reese capped an 84-yard march with an eight-yard TD run in the second quarter to make the score 14-14 at half-time.
Harold Wallin, who had blocked the Murray punt that became McCuiston's touchdown, rammed two yards to climax a 51-yard drive and give the Indians a third-quarter TD. They got another in the same quarter

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon
By Adeline McElfresh
[Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. © 1960 Adeline McElfresh]

THE STORY: Dr. Ann Kenyon received a serious future when she was in a train wreck and is now in Leddie Memorial Hospital in a small Indiana town. Already she has begun to see many conflicts and problems among the medical personnel of the hospital.

"Here, here!" Dr. Clyde's bantering tone brought her back. "We can't have you waiting off through an aura of roses Ann Kenyon!"
"I was thinking."
He grinned at her. "Conceded. But what's this Miss Sallie tells me about you hurting?"
Because she knew he was thinking of the danger of over-pull, always possible in continuous traction, Ann said, "I'm sorry. I'm afraid that was - thinking too."
Shaking his head, he said, "Whoever first said doctors make terrible patients was only too right. You're probably counting down the way they do at Canaveral."
"I've longer to go."
He eyed the somewhat complicated traction hook-up for a longish minute before he said, "Has Pete had you down to X-ray?"
"I'm going today." With a smile she added, "I'm looking forward to it. I think I suspect being wheeled along corridors with all this paraphernalia is going to be quite an experience."
"You can say that again!" His grin included both her and "Miss Sallie" Enderle as he said, "Keep an eye on her, Miss Sallie. I'll see you in therapy in about an hour."
With some remark or other for the others in the ward he disappeared through the double swinging doors, but scarcely before Mrs. Enderle said, "If I was that doctor in New York, I'd be gittin' you out here."
Ann smiled. "Why?"
"Dr. Clyde's fallin' in love with you, that's why."
The gasp caught in Ann's throat. "Of course he isn't!"
Keenly aware of the warmth that must be staining her cheeks the crimson of Brill's roses, Ann was powerless to stop it. How perfectly preposterous! People don't fall in love like that, not with someone they don't even know, she told herself and promptly argued with herself that that was wrong. She had, with Brill Crayden, and - There she was, back to Brill again. Dr. Davis Clyde was a much safer subject for contemplation. At least she liked Dr. Clyde.

The trip to X-ray, one floor down, as not the "experience" she had feared it might be. Cass Llewellyn and an orderly maneuvered the bed, cumbersome with its overhead frame and intricate traction setup, along the corridor and onto the service elevator with nary a jostle and almost before she knew it Ann found herself again in the first-floor corridor that had been her introduction to Leddie Memorial Hospital. It looked different, somehow, now that it was not filled with swirling mists that had been her own agony and the death-gloom of those seven persons. Ann tried not to think of that nor of Mrs. McAnderson's "gift" that she wouldn't be able to "pass along" now.
" - respiratory infection," Dr. Lyle's low voice penetrated her thoughts. "I'm sorry."
The woman groaned.
"Laura, my dear -" Dr. Lyle was being gentle.
The woman's voice, dulled by her grief interrupted. "You said he suffocated."
In the sudden silence within the emergency room the sounds of Ann's bed being wheeled along the corridor were loud.
Then Dr. Lyle again, "The child suffocated, Laura. You found him lying on his face, and a month-old baby -"
Oh, but healthy babies don't suffocate that easily! Ann was saying within herself when the woman stumbled into the corridor, stopped short when she saw them.
"You - you're the - the doctor from New York, aren't you?" Her voice was thin from strain, dehydrated by the same hot fire that had burned the life from her eyes. "The one who was in the train wreck?"
Ann said, "Yes."
Miss Llewellyn and the orderly stopped.
"My baby -"
Ann put a hand to the clenched fists. "I'm terribly sorry."
"Laura, my dear." The doctor was at her side, his arm going about her shoulders, "Let me drive you home."
The young woman moved away from him.
"My baby is dead. I do not believe. I will not believe that he suffocated. Healthy babies don't, I've read." Her quiet intensity pinioned Ann. "Do you think they do, Doctor?"
Ann said, "No, I don't," and knew that she had made an enemy.
Without a word Dr. Emerson Lyle walked away from them.

Horace Mann Spoils Yerger Homecoming

Little Rock Horace Mann defeated the Yerger Tigers 21 to 6 here Friday night in a homecoming contest before a large crowd.
The visitors scored in the first quarter on a 10 yard run by Benjamin Jordan. Edward Hollway added the point.
Later in the period a fumbled punt by Yerger set up another score for the visitors. Otis Teller went in from the five and Hollway again kicked the point.
In the third quarter Sidney Bryant tossed a 30 yarder to B. Jordan for a third touchdown. Hollway added the point.
Yerger got its touchdown in the final period on a 15 yard pass from Ronald Stewart to Melvin Turnine.
It was homecoming for the Tigers and a fine parade in downtown Hope preceded the game Friday afternoon.

Lamonica, who two weeks ago escaped series injury in an auto accident, wound up the day with nine completions in 17 attempts for 211 yards in his first chance at running the club for any appreciable length of time.
The victory boosted the Bills' record to 4-4-1 and pushed them back into the struggle for Eastern honors. Boston and Houston are tied for the top spot with 5-4 records following the Patriots' wallowing of the Oilers Friday night. New York is last, but still in contention, at 3-4-1.
The Jets were overwhelmed 53-7 by the Western Division leading San Diego Saturday night as veteran quarterback Tobin Rote put on an outstanding one-man show for the Chargers, completing 21 of 29 passes for 369 yards and three touchdowns while plunging a yard for another score.
The Chargers, 6-2, lead the West by 1 1/2 games over the Oakland Raiders, who brought their record to 5-4 by edging Kansas City 10-7 on a league record 65-yard punt return by Claude Gibson in the fourth quarter.
Lamonica, who starred at Notre Dame as a collegian, got able assistance in his first big pro test from Gilchrist and Mack Yoho. Gilchrist gained 125 yards in 26 carries while Yoho kicked a 22-yard field goal that provided the margin of victory.
Denver rookie Don Breas fired four TD passes, 45 and 27 yarders to Bill Groman, a 43-yarder to Bob Scarpitto and a 70-yarder to Lionel Taylor.
Oakland's Raiders got off to a 3-0 lead on a 10-yard field goal by Mike Mercer in the second period but Kansas City moved in front before the half on Abner Haynes' one-yard plunge. Then, in the final quarter, Gibson hauled in a punt on the 15, raced down the sidelines and eluded a flying tackle by Eddie Wilson as he crossed with the deciding TD.
The 35-year-old Rote made effective use of Lance Alworth against the Jets, hitting the fleet flanker with five long passes for 180 yards, including a 28-yard touchdown. Rote's other touchdown passes came on a 16-yarder to Paul Lowe and a 14-yarder to Dave Kocourek. Lowe also scored on an 11-yard run.
